

Outcasts Revisited Radio Show & Podcast Descriptions
2017 - 2023

1: Don't miss this new punk & new wave radio show this Friday night at 11pm on Alameda Community Radio, KACR 96.1 FM. This is the real thing, produced right here in Alameda. Learn more @OutcastsRevisitedRadio.

2: Another Outcasts Revisited show comes at you this weekend. 1970s and 80s music and stories about the Stranglers and Celia and the Mutations, some Blondie and Ramones, and one of the best sets in punk rock, led off by Stiv Bators and the Dead Boys. Two chances to hear the program this weekend: Friday 10/6 at 11pm on KACR 96.1 FM in Alameda, and Saturday 10/7 at 11pm on KGPC 96.9 FM in Oakland. Tune in.

3: This weekend is another edition of Alameda's very own Outcasts Revisited. Listen to the broadcast Friday night at 11pm on KACR 96.1 FM in Alameda and Saturday night at 11pm on KGPC 96.9 FM in Oakland. Lots of surprises on the show including the Dead Boys, the Rings, the Count Bishops, Johnny Moped and a mystery band from LA. The best in new wave and punk rock. Tune in.

4: Another great Outcasts Revisited radio show coming at you this weekend on KACR 96.1 Alameda (Fri. 12/1 at 11pm) and KGPC 96.9 Oakland (Sat. 12/2 at 11pm). Besides the Drones, I'll feature the Zeroes, the Nosebleeds, the Rezillos, the Damned, Marseille and bunch more early Punk and New Wave bands. Tune in!

4a: Hey, If you were there, as I was, for the beginnings of the punk scene in SF, I think you'll enjoy my radio program, Outcasts Revisited. I play early, rare punk just as KSAN's Outcastes did, but adding my own insights. Hear the podcasts at <http://www.kgpc969.org/outcastsrevisited/> or tune in on KACR in Alameda or KGPC in Oakland

5a: You're not going to want to miss this special 40th anniversary show on Outcasts Revisited of the #SexPistols last concert on January 14, 1978, in San Francisco. If you can't wait, here's a preview <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisitedSexPistolsLive>

5b: This weekend on Bay Area FM: 40th anniversary show of the #SexPistols last concert on January 14, 1978, in San Francisco. If you can't wait, here's a preview, with photos I took at the concert:

<http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisitedSexPistolsLive>

Special: 40 years ago today, the last interview with the Sex Pistols before their breakup.

Listen to the full original KSAN broadcast on this Outcasts Revisited special podcast

6: This weekend on Outcasts Revisited, rare Devo live at the Fab Mab, the Slits, and SF and LA bands. Tune in Fri. 2/2 at 11pm on KACR 96.1 and Sat. 2/3 at 11pm on KGPC 96.9.

Or listen now:

<http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

7: Alameda's own Outcasts Revisited hits the airwaves this weekend featuring the Vibrators and a load of original punk and new wave. Vintage Lurkers, Mutants, X-Ray Specs and more. Plus a special listener request by Times 5. Tune in Fri. 3/2 at 11pm on Alameda Community Radio 96.1 or Sat. 3/3 at 11pm on KGPC 96.9 or listen to the podcast now <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

8: It's a Blondie live special on Outcasts Revisited his weekend. Don't miss these rare live tapes from '77 & '79, including the infamous show at SF's Old Waldorf. Listen on Alameda Community radio 96.1 FM (Fri. 11pm) or on KGPG 96.9 FM in Oakland (Sat. 11pm) or the podcast anytime at <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>. I've posted some of my photos of Debbie Harry and the band right here: http://bit.ly/Heyman_Foto.

9: Grab a cool one, Alameda's very own Outcasts Revisited show is coming at you this weekend with real punk and new wave featuring four LA and SF bands, a couple of Generation X tunes, the Runaways, Iggy Pop, the Normal, TRB and more. Tune in Fri 5/4 at 11pm on Alameda Community Radio KACR 96.1 FM or Sat 5/5 at 11pm on KGPC 96.9 FM in Oakland. Listen to the podcast anytime <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

10: This month's Outcasts Revisited is out now and on the airwaves this weekend on KGPC and Alameda Community Radio's KACR. You won't want to miss rarities from the Nipple Erectors (aka The Nips), Sham 69, Magazine, The Normals, 999 and XTC. There's even a mod tribute set. The best in real punk and new wave. Listen to Episode 10:

<http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

11: This month's Outcasts Revisited broadcast comes driving at you with two rare, vintage 1977 KSAN live shows: The Dead Boys at the Mabuhay Gardens and Eddy and the Hot Rods at the Old Waldorf. Listen on FM to KACR 96.1 on Friday, July 6, or KGPC 96.9 on Saturday, July 7, both transmissions at 11pm. Or check out the stream anytime at <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>. It's the best in real Punk and New Wave.

12: Just in time for the weekend, it's Outcasts Revisited 12, the Cold War edition. Relive your 80s fears and rage through the Ramones, New Order and The Ruts. We throw in some Blondie and 999, read fan mail and add SF's own Pearl Harbor & the Explosions and Pink Section to the mix. Plus, a shout-out to legendary jock Richard Gossett and KSAN Jive 95: The Movie. Tune-in right now, right here: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

13: Just in time for Labor Day, it's the Talking Heads live in 1977 at San Francisco's Old Waldorf on this month's decidedly New Wave edition of Outcasts Revisited. Rare early KSAN recording of the band, plus a firsthand account of how possibly the Talking Heads came up with the name. You won't hear this anywhere else. Airing all this month on KGPC 96.9 and KACR 96.1 or listen now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>. Also, you can see my photos of the Talking Heads right here: http://bit.ly/Heyman_Foto

14: It's Outcasts Revisited 14 with two proto-punk classics from the Tubes, a slathering of crossover Punk and New Wave "hits," and a decent measure of the good stuff, like Gang of Four and Wire, all but one tune from the 70s. Broadcast throughout October on KGPC 96.9 & KACR 96.1, or listen now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>. And you don't want to miss my photos of a Tubes show right here: http://bit.ly/Heyman_Foto

15: Fall into fall with November's Outcasts Revisited radio show. A hodgepodge of early Punk and New Wave from the likes of the Avengers, 999, the Circle Jerks, XTC and the Gun Club. Broadcast throughout the month on KGPC 96.9 FM (first airing Sat 11/03 @11pm) & KACR 96.1 FM (first airing Fri 11/02 @11pm), or listen now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>. See more photos of the Avengers here: http://bit.ly/Heyman_Foto

16: I give a shout-out to KSFS, where I honed my DJ skills, on the December program: It's the Holidays Humdrum show on this month's Outcasts Revisited. Hear from the likes of the Buzzcocks, Blondie, The Rezillows, The Fall, Flipper, The Jam, the Teardrop Explodes -- and even Warren Zevon. A mostly 1978 throwback of early Punk and New Wave you won't want to miss. Broadcast throughout the month on KGPC FM 96.9 Oakland & KACR FM 96.1 Alameda, or listen now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>.

17: Outcasts Revisited is kicking off 2019 with a rare January 1978 Ramones live show from the Old Waldorf in San Francisco. You Ramones fans -- and pretty much everyone else -- will not want to miss the original band at their best in this live KSAN JIVE 95 recording from my archives. Listen now right here: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

18: Forget the Super Bowl. Listen to kinky sex and other war stories on February's Outcasts Revisited. This month, I'm featuring the Dead Kennedys, the Urinals, Circle Jerks, Reagan Youth, Throbbing Gristle and a bunch more bands. Broadcasting now on KGPC & KACR

19: This month on Outcasts Revisited, a rare live recording, introduced by KSAN JIVE 95's The Bonnie Simmons Show more than 40 years ago, of one of the quintessential protest bands of the punk movement, the Tom Robinson Band, or TRB as they were known back in the day, from the Old Waldorf in San Francisco in 1978. Do not miss this show. Pay close attention to the song Power in the Darkness, as timely now as it was then. Broadcasting on KACR Alameda Community Radio, 96.1 FM in Alameda, Friday at 11pm, and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio, 96.9 FM in Oakland, Saturday at 11pm. Or stream it now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

20. We pay tribute to the English Beat's Ranking Roger, who died much too young, on this month's Outcasts Revisited. There's also plenty of music from the likes of the Zeros, the The Avengers (here's to you Penelope Houston and Hector Penalosa!), the Drones, Chelsea, the Rezillos, and a whole lot more, including a set of only-in-punk-rock 3-word song titles. Broadcasting on Alameda Community Radio, 96.1 FM in Alameda, Friday at 11pm, and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio, 96.9 FM in Oakland, Saturday at 11pm. Or stream it now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

21: You Elvis Costello fans take note: Two rare live shows on this edition of Outcasts Revisited. We present the entire first show that Elvis Costello & the Attractions played in San Francisco in 1977 at the Old Waldorf and a portion of their 1978 show at Berkeley's Zellerbach. Not to be missed are these early versions of Costello's songs before he became the near-megastar he is nowadays. Catch it live this weekend on Alameda Community Radio KACR 91.1 FM, Friday, 11pm, and on KGPC, Peralta Community Radio

96.9 FM, Saturday at 11pm, or stream it now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

22: Outcasts Revisited is coming at you hard this month with a show devoted to ex-YU 1970s and 1980s punk rock. Hear a smattering of the best bands from former Yugoslavia, including Pankrti (Ljubljana, Slovenia), Paraf (Rijeka, Croatia), KUD Idijoti (Pula, Croatia) and Pekinška Patka aka Пекиншка Патка (Novi Sad, Vojvodina/Serbia). You're not going to hear this stuff anywhere else. Broadcast in the states throughout June on KGPC 96.9 & KACR 96.1, or listen now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>. And a shout out to my pal Zoran Bogunovic for his help producing this show. Hvala!

23: July's Outcasts Revisited, made right here in Alameda, comes right at you through the airwaves this weekend. Don't miss our 'My Way' shout out to Stan the Man, not to mention cameos by XTC, the Cure, Joy Division, Siouxsie and the Banshees, a bit of the Undertones and even a little Iggy and, not to be missed, some rare Bowie and Kraftwerk.

24: You could do a lot worse this weekend than listening to August's Outcasts Revisited Second Anniversary show. Nothing like the Cortinas, the Saints, Crime, Mink de Ville and the Twinkeyz. Anyone remember Novak? Oh, there's Pere Ubu's 30 Seconds Over Tokyo to add a haunting theme. Repeated endlessly on Alameda Community Radio KACR 96.1 FM in Alameda and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio, 96.9 FM in Oakland. Better yet, listen to the podcast now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

25: Another month and another episode of Outcasts Revisited. This one, a rare recording from the archives: Mink DeVille live at San Francisco's Old Waldorf in January 1977. You're gonna love this little-recognized band from back in the day, complete with Richard Gossett's intro. Broadcast this weekend on Alameda Community Radio KACR 96.1 FM at 11pm Friday, and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio 96.9 FM in Oakland, Saturday at 11pm. Or listen to podcast now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

26: I get a little nostalgic for an age yet to come this month on Outcasts Revisited as I feature my favorite bands from high school and college: Blondie (yes, that's me in 1978 smooching with Debbie Harry), the Ramones, Sex Pistols, the Jam, and Buzzcocks. Broadcast this weekend on Alameda Community Radio KACR, 96.1 FM at 11pm Friday, and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio, 96.9 FM in Oakland, Saturday at 11pm. Or listen to the podcast now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

27: Before you get overly thankful this month, check out November's Outcasts Revisited, Alameda's own noisy punk rock radio program. It's a follow-on to last month's show featuring some of my favorite original Punk and New Wave bands. Hear the likes of the Clash, Generation X, the Stranglers, Nick Lowe, and XTC. Broadcast all month long on Alameda Community Radio KACR, 96.1 FM and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio, 96.9 FM in Oakland, Or listen right now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

28: It's the Cars in 1978 live at SF's Old Waldorf this month on @[907872446055004:274:Outcasts Revisited]. None of that holiday mumbo jumbo, just pure early New Wave in this rare live broadcast. Over the ether throughout December on Alameda Community Radio KACR, 96.1 FM, and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio 96.9 FM in Oakland, or stream it now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited> Happy holiday everybody.

29: To start off what will undoubtedly be a year of political angst, on Outcasts Revisited this month, ex-KSAN intern Jeff Heyman hosts a show of old school political punk rock. You'll hear from the likes of Cock Sparrer, Method Actors, Wire, Sham 69, The Urinals, 4 Skins, The Dickies, Vice Squad, Peter and the Test Tube Babies, and more. It's Punk at its best. All month on Alameda Community Radio KACR, 96.1 FM, and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio 96.9 FM in Oakland. Or stream it now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

30: Sex Pistols Encore: It's an encore broadcast of the SexPistols last concert on January 14, 1978, in San Francisco. And here are some photos I took at the concert: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisitedSexPistolsLive> (Broadcast February 2020)

31: Alright, punk rock fans, this month on Outcasts Revisited it's a super rare 1976 live show with the Patti Smith Group at the Boarding House in old time San Francisco. Plus a bonus snippet of a rambling KSAN interview with the artist herself. Not to be missed, airing this weekend and throughout the month on Alameda Community Radio KACR, 96.1 FM, and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio, 96.9 FM in Oakland. Or stream it now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

32: Feeling down about the pandemic? This month's Outcasts Revisited show is guaranteed not to help. It's our Eve of Destruction edition featuring doomsday songs from the Dickies, the Clash, X-Ray Spex, the Specials, Blondie, XTC, the Stranglers, the Jam's Wasteland and more. Stay holed up a little longer 'cause we're airing all month on Alameda Community Radio, 96.1 FM, and KGPC, Peralta Community Radio, 96.9 FM in Oakland. Or stream it right now: <http://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisited>

33: Back from our pandemic pause and ready to rock, it's Outcasts Revisited, the radio program that brings you real punk and new wave. In our latest offering, we're headbanging with the Members, the Rings, the Zippers, Flipper, 999, Killing Joke, and a bunch more classic bands. Tune in on KGPC 96.9 FM in Oakland or KACR 96.1 FM in Alameda, 34: In this edition of Outcasts Revisited we pay tribute to Todd Stadtman, the East Bay pop and punk icon who died much too young earlier this year. We play some songs from some of Todd's bands, including The Blitz, B Team, and The Naked Into. And we listen to some of Todd's favorite bands and explore the music that inspired him. Find out more about Todd's multifaceted career in music, writing, and podcasting at <https://www.toddstadtman.com>.

35. It's the covers edition of Outcasts Revisited. Sure, a lot of punk bands did covers of other artists' songs. But how many bands have covered punk songs? More than you might think. In this show, we play punk classics by Blondie, Devo, Ramones, Buzzcocks, Sex Pistols, Clash, Stranglers, and the Cure, followed by cover versions from some truly obscure bands, some of them downright bizarre. Don't miss the Outcasts Revisited covers show right here or broadcasting on KACR 96.1 FM in Alameda and KGPC 96.9 FM in Oakland. Rock on!

36. It's that time of year and we present some of our seasonal favs this month on Outcasts Revisited. It's not going to be the kind of favorites you'd expect. Some punk classics and some surprises. Tune in and hear hits and obscurities from the likes of Kraftwerk, Bowie, the Tear Drop Explodes, the Dictators, the Jam, and even the Greg Kihn Band and Pete Townshend and Ronnie Lane. It's the seasonal favorites show this month on Outcasts Revisited. In the San Francisco Bay Area, you can also listen to the broadcast all month on KGPC 96.9 FM in Oakland and KACR 96.1 FM in Alameda.

37. Celebrate the New Year with a new format at Outcasts Revisited. We ring in the New Year with an exclusive interview with Zoran Bogunović of the Croatian rock band E.L.V.I.S. (which doesn't stand for what you might think). Zoran talks about his new band, the punk scene in former Yugoslavia, and his vision for making great rock 'n' roll. We sample E.L.V.I.S.'s songs and the music that influenced Zoran and the band. Don't miss this broadcast exclusive. Listen all month on KACR and KGPC or stream it right now: <https://bit.ly/OutcastsRevisitedShow>. Learn more about the band E.L.V.I.S. at <http://www.elvis.com.hr>.

38. With the drums of war beating evermore loudly, Outcasts Revisited makes a return to the Cold War, which influenced the punk scene in the late 1970s and early 1980s. Join us in a horrors-of-war and antiwar-inspired show featuring classic punk bands and a few post-punk groups, such as the Clash, Dead Kennedys, Discharge, the Weirdos, Anti-Flag, the Stranglers, UK Subs, and, of course, Laibach with its prescient song "NATO." We even throw in the local Bay Area bands Flipper and the Avengers. It's the Drums of War show on Outcasts Revisited. In the San Francisco Bay Area, listen to the broadcast all month long on KGPC 96.9 FM in Oakland and KACR 96.1 FM in Alameda.

39. The war has started and it is tragic. A new Cold War that's more brutal than the original in the 1970-80s when punk was an anti-war force standing up to autocratic dictators. In this month's Outcasts Revisited, we feature punk, post punk, new wave and cold wave bands that are brave enough to challenge authority in the post-Soviet republics, including some striking bands in Ukraine. The music is dark and deep and reflective of our times. Tune in locally on community radio or stream it now. It's the Post Soviet Punk Resistance show on Outcasts Revisited.

40. For April Fools we went out on a limb and did our first "acoustic punk" show on Outcasts Revisited. Who would have thought the likes of Joan Jett, Iggy Pop, the Descendents, Billy Bragg and the Ramones recorded acoustic versions of some of their biggest hits? Plus we throw in some foundational proto-punks on their guitars, such as Nikki Sudden, T. Rex, Patti Smith and Jonathan Richman. Newer punkers include Anti-Flag, Bad Religion, the Interrupters, and the Distillers. Don't miss Outcasts Revisited's all acoustic punk show on your local community radio station or stream it right here, right now.

41. Re Styles, one of the most admired members of The Tubes, died at age 72 on Easter Sunday. Re was hugely influential both in the band's music and their famous stage shows. Her duet with lead singer Fee Waybill, "Don't Touch Me There," is a rock classic. In this episode of Outcasts Revisited, I pay tribute to Re by broadcasting a 1975 Tubes live show at San Francisco's Winterland, thanks to KSAN and the Internet Archive. This was the year that Re joined the band and throughout this show she performs in several of the onstage scenarios for which The Tubes were so famous. I saw Re and the Tubes in these early years when I was in high school. Let me just say that no high school kid came away from a Tubes' show unaffected. To give you an idea of the scene, here are some photographs I took of Re and the band during a 1977 show at Bimbo's 365 Club in San Francisco: <https://heymanfoto.smugmug.com/Punk-Rock/The-Tubes/> Enjoy the show. RIP Re. You are missed.

42. In this episode of Outcasts Revisited we feature recordings of some of our favorite punk, new wave, ska, and reggae bands by John Peel, the longtime BBC Disc Jockey. "The Peel Sessions," as they were known, introduced literally thousands of bands to the public. In this broadcast, we highlight just a sampling of the Peel Sessions, including recorded-live-in-studio performances by The Jam, Buzzcocks, The Undertones, Stranglers, The Slits, Bow Wow Wow, Siouxsie and the Banshees, Magazine, The Fall,

The Selector, UB40, and Eek-A-Mouse. Don't miss these super high-fidelity recordings and some insight into John Peel on this edition of Outcasts Revisited.

43. No, on this edition of Outcasts Revisited, we don't play the more than 800 versions of Louie Louie, the classic cover song beloved by thousands since its hit status in the 1960s and a punk rock encore favorite. We only tap a mere 19 takes of Louie Louie in this marathon program from the likes of Iggy Pop, the Fall, Black Flag, Joan Jett, 39 Clocks, the Kingsmen (the first and only chart-topping version), the Kinks, the Sonics, the Beach Boys (imagine them on this show!), Pretty Things, Motorhead, Toots & the Maytals, and many others. If you can take it, don't miss our hourlong Louie Louie marathon on Outcasts Revisited. You'll never get it out of your head. Broadcast in the Bay Area on KGPC and KACR or listen right here, right now.

44. Another great Outcasts Revisited radio show. This encore show features some of our fav bands: the Drones, the Zeroes, the Nosebleeds, the Rezillos, the Damned, Marseille, the Stranglers, Generation X, Mink de Ville and a bunch more early Punk and New Wave bands. Tune in now! (Originally broadcast December 2017)

45. In an encore broadcast this month, it's a Blondie live special on Outcasts Revisited. Don't miss these rare live tapes from '77 & '79, including the infamous show at SF's Old Waldorf. I've posted some of my photos of Debbie Harry and the band right here: http://bit.ly/Heyman_Foto (First broadcast April 2018.)

46. Just in time for the weekend, it's an encore broadcast of Outcasts Revisited 12: The Cold War edition. Relive your 80s fears and rage -- which is strangely relevant again -- through the Ramones, New Order and The Ruts. We throw in some Blondie and 999, read fan mail and add SF's own Pearl Harbor & the Explosions and Pink Section to the mix. Plus, a shout-out to legendary jock Richard Gossett and KSAN, the Jive 95. (First broadcast August 2018)

47. In this encore broadcast, it's the Talking Heads live in 1977 and 1978 in San Francisco in a decidedly New Wave edition of Outcasts Revisited. Rare early KSAN recording of the band, plus a firsthand account of how possibly the Talking Heads came up with the name. You won't hear this anywhere else. Airing all this month on KGPC 96.9 and KACR 96.1. See my photos of the Talking Heads right here: http://bit.ly/Heyman_Foto (First broadcast September 2018)

48. It's that time of year and with it comes our annual seasonal favs show and, believe us, it's not going to be the kind of favorites you'd expect. Some punk classics and some surprises. Tune in and hear hits and obscurities from the likes of Kraftwerk, Bowie, the Tear Drop Explodes, the Dictators, the Jam, and even the Greg Kihn Band and Pete Townshend and Ronnie Lane. It's the annual seasonal favorites show ready to stream this month on Outcasts Revisited.

49. Not a lot of people remember that the Sex Pistols, the band that started it all, performed their last concert forever right here in San Francisco -- and I was there. So, each January we present an encore broadcast of this infamous Sex Pistols concert, which took place at Winterland on January 14, 1978. Broadcast all month long on KGPC and KACR.

50. Since it's our 50th program, we go way back and do a sort of anniversary special celebrating our very first broadcast on KPGC and KACR all those years ago. Nothing like the Cortinas, the Saints, Crime, Mink de Ville and the Twinkeyz to take us on a trip down memory lane. Anyone remember Novak? Oh, and there's Pere Ubu's 30 Seconds Over Tokyo to add a haunting theme to the climax of the show. If you're a devotee to Outcasts Revisited and punk rock, you will not want to miss this show. Or perhaps you're just curious. Now's the time to explore punk and new wave in its original raw glory.

51. It's an encore broadcast of the Cars in 1978 live at SF's Old Waldorf this month on Outcasts Revisited. Pure early New Wave in this rare live broadcast which you don't want to miss this month on KACR and KRPC or by streaming the podcast right now. (First broadcast December 2019)

52. Taking a detour this month from our usual punk and new wave offerings to bring you another musical genre that we were into back in the late 1970s and early 1980s: Reggae. We give a nod to the old KPFA show The Reggae Experience, in Outcasts Revisited 53, we bring you the best in roots rock reggae with a focus on dub. Sit back, turn down the lights and turn up the bass while we present an hour of dub style reggae from Black Uhuru, Augustus Pablo, King Tubby, Prince Jammy, Lee "Scratch" Perry, Sly & Robbie, Gregory Isaacs and other reggae legends.

Sex Pistols Interview on KSAN: More than 40 years ago, the last interview with the Sex Pistols before their breakup aired on KSAN. Listen to the full original KSAN broadcast on this Outcasts Revisited special podcast. It is truly a rough-cut piece of history.
(Podcast-only Edition)
